REMEDIES FOR THE TRUSTS

Prof. Wilgus of University of Michigan Suggests a System of State Reports

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 30.—Prof. H. L. Wilgus of the university, today addressed the business men's class on trusts. After giving an exhaustive dissertation on their extent and their causes he presented the remedies. He said in substance:

"Before trusts can be legally completely controlled a constitutional amendment is necessary. This would put a great and untold power in the hands of the national government and materially disturb the balance now existing between the national and state powers. This should be tried only when other remedies fail. Others suggested are:

1. Punish discriminations. This is now provided for as to interstate commerce, but the difficulty of obtaining the necessary evidence is almost insurmountable.
2. Repeat the tariff. This should be done when as to any article it is clear that its monopoly is upheld by the tariff. The present law provides for something of this kind, but here too, evidence is difficult to obtain.
3. Require corporations to make prices uniform to all. But perhaps this could not be constitutionally applied to trusts in the form of partnerships or trusts in equity having no franchise from the state; also, it could not reach the products that are sold to cross state lines, for this belongs to the national government exclusively.

"4. Publicity. It is the most feasible. A commission should be appointed to devise a uniform system of reports to be adopted by the different states, and then provision made for a national commission of experts to put the information into available shape for further action."

BRITISH GREED FOR GOLD

German Press of the United States Denounces Transvaal War.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—The Chicago Tribune after making a comprehensive inquiry says:

"The German press of the United States on the subject of the war in South Africa takes the view that it was provoked entirely by British greed for gold and would have been forced upon the two republics no matter what concessions were made.

"A few German editors advocate violent reprisals by the powers of Europe but in the main they urge intervention and arbitration."

LIVELY CAMPAIGN ON IN NEBRASKA

BRYAN MAKING FIGHT OF HIS LIFE IN THAT STATE.

General Indications Seem to Favor the Republicans In His State—Both Ohio and Iowa Seem to Be Safe For the Republican Ticket—Other State Campaigns.

Omaha, Oct. 30.—Every school district in the state this week will witness nightly rallies of the different parties. Ex-Governor Stone of Missouri, and Champ Clark of Pike county, will add their voices to those of Bryan and his friends in one grand effort to close the campaign in a manner that will insure the success of the fusion forces. On the other hand, Governor Roosevelt of New York, will have a voice in the affair for the republicans, and with a special train and a number of other orators will run over the state for a couple of days.

It is now clear to all that Colonel W. J. Bryan is fighting for his very existence here in Nebraska. He admits that it would be a distinct personal defeat for him if the state should be returned to the republican ranks, and the republican leaders agree that the success of the fusion ticket in Nebraska means a personal victory for W. J. Bryan.

So with this situation clearly defined, both sides are straining every nerve to carry the state.

The three parties—republican, democrat, and fusion—have sent out their estimates of the probable result. Chairman Toff of the republican committee, thinks the state will give a republican majority of 10,000, though he admits the situation is complicated. Chairman Dahman of the democratic forces, thinks fusion will win by from 15,000 to 20,000, and Chairman Edmiston of the populists' committee, says fusion should carry in the state by 10,000 to 20,000. To one who has taken an unbiased view of the conditions, and who has run over the state with speakers from both sides, it appears to be more favorable to republicans than to the democrats.

JUDGE NASH WILL BE ELECTED

Republican Chances in Ohio Have Improved Very Much

Cleveland, O., Oct. 30.—The heavy registration of voters in the cities of Ohio has raised the hopes of the republicans almost to the shouting degree. Saturday was the last of the four days of registration, and reports from all the large centers of population are to the effect that the total registration will equal, if not exceed, any previous registration for a state election. The republican managers have been haunted by the fear that a full vote would not come out election day. This fear has been removed, and now the party leaders are predicting the election of Nash by a comfortable majority.

As the time for election draws nearer the independent race of Mayor Samuel M. Jones of Toledo for governor of Ohio grows more important, and at the beginning of the last week of the campaign it is thought by many that his chances to take second place are better than McLean's chances for first.

The election of Judge Nash is pretty generally conceded, and it is reasonable to estimate that his majority will not be below the normal republican majority for Ohio, between 25,000 and 30,000. The democrats are basing much hope upon dissatisfaction that exists among republicans over the alleged bossism of Senator Hanna, and claim it will more than offset the slump in their vote for Jones. But in spite of all these conflicting elements the chances for Nash's election are more favorable than McLean's, though there is no ground for the sanguine belief that the republicans will have a landslide.

SHAW LIKELY TO WIN IN IOWA

Size of Republican Majority Dependent On Getting Out Votes.

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 30.—The campaign in Iowa will end with a grand flourish. Both parties worked hard last week and during the week just beginning every effort will be put forth in every county to gain the votes necessary to make the best possible showing. The campaign is being much more closely contested than usual for an off-year, and until the polls are closed both parties will claim gains.

As the situation stands today the republican party will certainly elect its whole state ticket ranging from 35,000 to 60,000. A majority of 45,000 is a conservative prediction. However, unless a pretty full vote is polled, the majority may be smaller. It will be necessary for a larger vote to be cast than usual, to bring the majority above 40,000.

Expansion and the war continue to be the chief topics discussed by both parties, and free silver is not heard of. The appeal to the German votes by the democrats does not appear to be having any marked influence on the situation.

VIEWS OF EX-SENATOR MARTIN

Kansas Democrat Says We Must Not Leave the Philippines

Topeka, Kansas, Oct. 30.—Former United States Senator John Martin, a democratic leader, said today in the course of an interesting view:

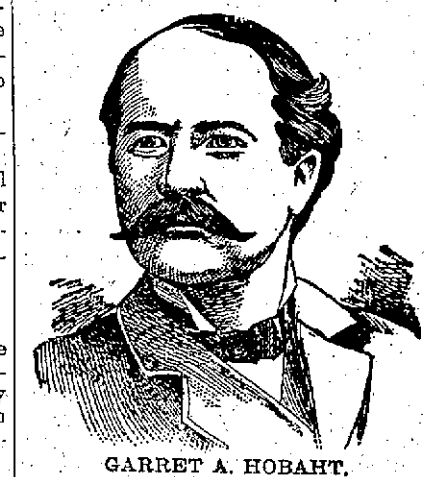

"Many of us may not be in harmony with the national administration regarding the disposition of the Philippines, but in the defence of the flag in the island we all have a patriotic duty to perform. Our authority practically has been established in the Philippines, and no right thinking citizen will demand that our military forces be withdrawn.

"Other powers of the earth have long desired the Philippines, but now that we have obtained possession, they are willing that we should have them. Were we to step down and divide them with or without war, and from the standpoint of humanity nothing would be gained by our course. And then we have our national honor to look out for. It would never do to haul down the flag."

TEMPERANCE WORK WILL BE PUSHED

JANESVILLE FRANCIS MURPHY
LEAGUE TAKES HOLD.

Rousing League Meeting Was Held Yesterday Afternoon—Committee Is Appointed to Investigate the Successful Campaign Now Going On in the City of Beloit.

Members of the Francis Murphy Temperance League of this city are to investigate the workings of the Francis Murphy League of Beloit. At a meeting held in this city yesterday afternoon the following committee was appointed to visit the Line City: John H.
Jones, Al. Smith and Dr. James Mills.
This evening the committee intend to be present at a special meeting of the league in Beloit, and find out the exact method of work as conducted in the Line City. Since the temperance movement was started in Beloit the amount of good that has been done on all sides has been unlimited, and many drinking men have been saved from drunkards' graves.

When Dr. Mills, as president of the Francis Murphy Temperance League of Janesville, called the meeting to order in this city yesterday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock, there was not a vacant seat in the room. Standing room was soon at a premium and not since the temperance rallies in the armory has such a well attended temperance meeting been held in this city. J. H. Jones presided as secretary and J. C. Kluge led in the singing.

Rev. R. C. Denison, pastor of the Congregational church, was the first speaker on the program and his excellent address was along the lines of temperance as viewed in Janesville. He spoke of the good being accomplished on all sides by the Murphy League.

Miss Mary Wilcox, in her usual pleasing way, rendered two solos accompanied by Miss Harrington at the piano.

Hon. J. M. Whitehead then spoke on temperance, delivering an address that contained food that all men will do well to follow.

A collection amounting to between $6 and $7 was contributed and the afternoon proved one of profit and enjoyment.

The Francis Murphy League in this city will be a year old next December and it is the intention to celebrate the event by the holding of several rousing meetings to be presided over by Francis Murphy.

Convict Labor Is Denounced.

Sioux City, Iowa, Oct. 30.—The convict contract labor system was the sub-were made at a meeting called by the resolutions on the same line were adopted by those present. Arrangements were made to send a delegation to the capital to fight the introduction of the system the board of control is endeavoring to inaugurate.

Benton Harbor Not Alarmed.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Oct. 30.— Physicians here state that to their knowledge Gov. Pingree has not appointed a committee to make an inspection of the peculiar disease called smallpox. They think the report is a canard sent out by another town with the intention of injuring this city. They say the same disease is prevalent in many other towns in this and other states, but that the cases in other localities have not been heralded as smallpox.

No Pardon for J. F. Johnson.

Logansport, Ind., Oct. 30.—John F.

stitution he wrecked by embezzling lated for his pardon with such diligence that the prayer of the friends of Johnson, now serving a seven-year sentence in the Ohio penitentiary, will never reach President McKinley.

MORE LIGHT ON GOOD ROADS

Difference Between "Repairing" and "Macadamizing" a Street.

Janesville, Wis., Oct. 30. Editor Gazette.—Let us rejoice together, because of the fact that in a great republic can center the leading daily republican newspaper is ever to be found devoting valuable space to the general public.

Had the people of Janesville entertained one more convention during this year, by having the "Good-Roads" meeting, it is possible he would have gained valuable information, or at least sufficient knowledge to know the difference between "repairing" a street and "macadamizing" it. I for one admire the pluck of our mayor in his official capacity when he refuses to sign his name to a contract whereby the tax payers are in their ignorance liable to be disappointed and I admire his actions just as much when he advocates the carrying out an ordinance when the official duty of one officer gets impinged upon by some other official. But the subject of this communication is designed to let in more light, by holding, that no part of Fourth avenue has been macadamized, as was published in The Gazette on the 36th inst.

It seems that there was an order to "repair" a portion of Fourth avenue. It also seems that the alderman, who represents the people of that ward, believes in the old adage: "If a thing is worth doing at all, it is worth doing well."
Therefore, he, wishing to show his constituency that he was looking after their interests, volunteered his assistance to watch out and get substantial "repairs" made so far as the ward fund would permit. So the repairs which were being so thoroughly executed and now so unexpectedly nipped in the bud, because of jealousy on the part of the street commissioner, is laid before the whole city as a sample of "macadam road," which is a delusion, and likely to prove a snare to future contractors who make contracts to macadamize other sections.

What Then, Is a Macadam Road?

No piece of roadway can be considered macadamized unless the specifications laid down (and in general use in in other countries) by the inventor are worked up to. In order to have a piece of macadamized street or road, there must first be removed fourteen inches of the dirt, then there must be seven inches of coarse broken rock or stone covering the whole surface, then another coat of broken stone or rock recovering the surface.

The last coat of stone shall have no pieces having a diameter of more than two and one-half inches. Then the whole mass must be well rolled and packed, then recovered with finely broken materials then rolled to make a solid smooth surface.

Such a road-way has not been constructed on any part of Fourth avenue.
But about one block and a half has been repaired, but left in quite an unfinished condition. Could any citizen of Janesville have watched the enfeebled and aged Mr. Brown day after day working and superintending, and paying his helpers to construct gutters on each side of the avenue, I cannot believe a single tax-payer in the city would demur because the officers of the city furnished and delivered the material with which to make such permanent repairs.

Keep tab on West Milwaukee street for the next three or four years, then compare it with a real macadamized roadway, if such a piece is put in on South Main street this fall? No doubt that our well informed officers will see to it that the so called macadamized road on the Fourth avenue hill is not used by the contractors as a sample.
Our public press cannot be too careful about giving contractors any loop-holes to crawl through; neither should the city official be so derelict of duty as to leave Fourth avenue in the condition it is now in another day. W. P. R.

North Magnolia News.

North Magnolia, Oct. 30.—The fall work is being done up we are having such fine weather. A year ago, the 25th was the heavy snow storm. The shredders are all very busy all through the country. The Shaw boys are well pleased with their machine and have plenty of work ahead. They threshed for Mr. Hearn this week on the Widow Nash place. Mr. Hess threshed last Saturday. Lee and Frasier are shredding in the west part of the neighborhood. There was quite an accident at the railroad crossing. Mr. Hall's horse died in the road by the crossing, and later a horse and carriage containing Mrs. Hess and granddaughter Francis, and Mrs. Diley and son came to where the horse lay, when their horse became frightened, whirled around throwing them out and ran away. The buggy was broken all to pieces, and Mrs. Hess was bruised about her limbs and received a black eye. The rest escaped with a general shaking up.
About twenty young people gathered at Mr. Shaw's Friday night and report a good time generally. Miss Minnie Davis of Porter, spent a couple of days with Hollis Shaw last week. Mr. Diley and family of Iowa, came last week to spend the winter, having sold their farm. They will reside in one of Mr.
Hess' houses. Mrs. Shaw and daughter Hollis went to Janesville Wednesday.
The Sunday school has closed for the season. The young people attend the Endeavor society in Magnolia usually.
We have a few campers occasionally.
There were some Sunday night camped by the roadside. They are like the mors of a wedding soon, are floating in Every movement made in the ring last Saturday by the great Australian, bespoke the Fitzsimmons of old. There were the same odd, quick feints, deadly swings, and terrific short jolts which have tumbled many a good man to the dust in the past. "Richard's" himself again.

Next Friday night the two Herculeses of the ring, Jim Jeffries, the huge boiler maker, and Tom Sharkey the iron-sawed sailor, will do battle for the heavy-weight championship of the world.
According to all reports Jeffries is in as fine condition as a man need be who has such a tough contract on his hands.

Results of Saturday's football games were as follows: Wisconsin 10; Rush 0.
Ohio 8, Oberlin 0. Columbia 5, Yale 0.
Chicago 5, Pennsylvania 5. Cornell 5,

NEW BILLS IN CIRCULATION

Easy to Determine Denomination—The Distinguishing Features

The new $2 certificates will soon be in general circulation about Janesville. A fine head of Washington, placed in the middle of the lower half of the note, is the distinguishing feature. On either side of the head, which is in an oval medallion, is a sitting figure. A male
ing industry, is on the left of the portrait viewed from the front. A female figure holding a cornucopia is on the right. A large and plain figure 2 is in each corner of the bill, making it easy to determine the denomination without closer inspection.

TO ERECT STEEL TURN TABLE

Northwestern Company Find That Their Present One Won't Answer.

At the Chicago & Northwestern roundhouse a new turn table has been erected to take the place of the present one which is said to be too frail. It was not long ago since a new table was erected by the company in this city at a large expense. The table was not substantial enough to hold the large engines that are used today and would sag when overweighed. The new table will cost a goodly sum in itself and will be constructed of steel.

numerous Janesville friends trust that his recovery will be a speedy one.

War Tactics Of the Boers.

How They Are Defending Their Frontiers Against the Great Army England Has Sent Overseas.

BY LIEUTENANT H. R. GAHAN.

A BOER OUTPOST.
(From a photograph.)

That the Boer does not always fight in guerrilla fashion has been shown by the early engagements of which the cables have brought us meager details. The dash into Natal by the enraged burghers of the two little Boer republics is something unprecedented in their fighting history. In the past they have won signal victories in repelling invaders. They have crouched on their frontiers and moved down their enemies at long range with the rocks of their own land as a natural bulwark.

But the fact remains that the Boer forces are not fitted for invasion and that the theater of the war must be strung out along their borders. This is where they are most at home. Give a Boer a rock, a rifle, a hundred rounds and a few pieces of blintz, and he is equipped for a long siege. He is a host in himself. He needs no officer to tell him what to do. He knows that beforehand. He just raises his sights and takes pot shots wherever a red-coat is seen.

The Boer frontier is admirably adapted to this kind of warfare. On the south and east, from which directions the British must approach the Boers, there is a natural barrier formed by the hills and mountains of the Drakensburg range. At intervals there are passes. It was through these passes that the Boers recently swarmed to form for their attack on Ladysmith, the Aldershot of British South Africa.

Of course such a narrow pass as Van Reenen's De Beers or the Bezuidenhout is really a natural fort for soldiers who know how to take advantage of nature's bulwarks. And it is in such positions as these that the Boer knows how to fight best. This is his idea of war—to have infantry march up in regular ranks and be shot down while he squats behind a rock shelter and pumps lead.

You cannot persuade a Dutchman that the Transvaal will be beaten. An old Boer was being warned of the might of England. He was told that 30,000 troops would be sent out.

"We will shoot them all," he said. He was told that England would continue to send 30,000 after 30,000 for 12 years if need were.

"Allomaght," he replied, "am I to go on shooting Englishmen for 12 years?" Said an Englishman who recently returned to London from the Transvaal in answering a question as to how the Boers could believe that they could defeat all the armies of the empire:

"I have talked the matter over with many of them. First of all, they believe it would not be possible for us to bring all the resources of our empire to bear. Next, they feel confident, because of their experience in the war of independence, that they can easily put to flight any force we may send against them."

"I have heard many of the old Boer warriors describe the battle of Laingsnek. The redjackets left their white tents in the morning about 9 or 10, after they had had their breakfast and formed up," they say. "Their red coats could be seen by every one, their bay-surveys went and measured out spots where they had to stand in lines; and then they formed up, every man straight. The adjutant came and cocked his eye down along the ranks to see no one was an inch behind the others.

"'Men,' he said, 'you see those rocks? The enemy are behind them. You are to go and drive them out.' Then the men put their helmets on their bayonets and waved them and cheered. They marched up in rows. All this time we were sitting quietly smoking, laughing, and joking together. As they got near the commandant called out, 'Defend yourselves, men!' Then we put our gun muzzles behind a shelter of rocks, took aim, picked out the officers and fired. Soon there came a rattle, and lead pattered all round; but it all went over our heads, for we were sheltered. We just picked off all the leaders as they came up."

But this time the Boers have not waited for the English to come out and be killed. They have gone hunting the Ruims and in doing so have abandoned their passes and their rock strewn plateaus. But eventually the line of Boer resistance must be pushed back to these same natural barriers and then the old Boers will be at home. It is the young Boers, you may rest assured, who were responsible for the raid into Natal.

When it comes the turn of the British to take the offensive, which they will do when their crowded troops are now on the sea are unloaded at Durban, they will approach the Transvaal or Free State frontier by several routes. At least, they have a choice of several, no one of which will be an easy path for an army to travel.

Six points along the frontiers of the South African Republic and Orange Free State are now of special interest either because they are the centers where the Boers are massing their forces or because they are strategic positions where the British may advance into the territory of their enemy with the least bloodshed and difficulty.

The chief center of activity at present is near the apex of the acute northern angle of Natal where it pushes its mountain wall of land up into the plateau on which the South African Republic is situated. Nearly all the Boer towns on the plateau around this gateway and the Natal towns on the plain to the south and along the railroad leading up through the valley to the plateau are mentioned daily in the dispatches.

The Boer towns are the merest hamlets in a region, partly of farms on the plateau and of mountains in the little strip where the Transvaal frontier includes some high hills. Most of these Boer hamlets have sprung up since the railroad from Durban to Pretoria was built and the most important among them is the administrative town of the district.

There is Wakkerstroom, some miles to the east of the railroad, where the Boers are said to have mounted a big gun to defend the place. It has its "county building," and its few stores

AGUINALDO IS RETREATING.

Rebel Leader Failing Back as Gen. Young Advances.

Manila, Oct. 30.—A majority of the refugees report that Aguinaldo is moving to Bayambang with 2,000 men instead of attacking Gen. Young. The Cabanatuan forces are slowly following him while he is retreating to Aliza. The gunboat Laguna de Bay remains at Santa Rosa. The Rio Grande is falling slightly and hinders the transport service, which is now depending on mules and carabao.

Yesterday Col. Bell paid his weekly visit to Cabiao, which was stubbornly defended. He finally routed the rebels and chased them over the hills, killing many, but losing two officers and four men wounded.

The Thirty-second regiment is now disembarking.

Emperor William's Course.

Berlin, Oct. 30.—It is asserted in quarters usually reliable that Emperor William's agitation for a new naval program was undertaken without first consulting the Bundesrath and really against the wishes of that body. The emperor's speech at Hamburg was designed, it is said, not only to criticize the reichstag, but to censure the Bundesrath, which has not followed his majesty's urging, particularly Bavaria and Wurtemberg. The imperial chancellor, Prince von Hohenlohe, is said to be indignant at the emperor's course.

Denied at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 30.—The statement published so prominently by the Quebec papers respecting the alleged displeasure of the governor general with the Laurier cabinet is officially denied. The statement was that the governor general had notified Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in consequence of the deadlock in the cabinet as to sending a Canadian contingent to Africa, that unless the government took immediate steps to send the contingent he would have to dismiss the ministry and call a leader to form a cabinet that would do so.

Canard About Senator Hanna.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 30.—The Post-Intelligencer authorizes the statement that the story sent out from Spokane that the paper had been sold to Mark Hanna and Henry Payne has no foundation in fact, nor has it been sold to anybody else. So far as known here, neither Mr. Hanna nor Mr. Payne ever had the slightest idea of buying the Post-Intelligencer, even if it were for sale, and the management says it is not in the market.

Miners' Strike Declared Off.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 30.—The strike of coal miners in the New River district has been officially declared off. The strike started six weeks ago for an advance of 5 cents a ton. The advance was granted by only thirteen of the forty-five mines in the field. It is not thought the district will be fully at work again before January, as many miners left during the strike for the west.

ORIGIN OF THE DIAMOND.

Is Explained by the Recent Discovery in Kimberly.

The origin of diamonds, which for so long has been a debated question, appears to be explained by a recent discovery near Kimberly. In both the Indian and the Brazilian diamond fields the gem occurs like a pebble in certain gravelly strata, but has not been traced back to any rock that gives any indication of its genesis. After the discovery of diamonds in the river sand on some South African rivers, a peculiar material of a brownish-buff color, which turned to a dark bluish tint, was found. It became harder as the miners dug down. The diamonds lay in this material, together with several other minerals, such as garnets, iron ores, augite, olivine, etc. Excavations—begun unsystematically—were eventually carried on on such scale that near Kimberly they have reached a depth of more than 1,400 feet. Here the rock is about as hard as ordinary limestone. The blue ground is found only in limited areas. The rocks around are of dark shales, banded with hard sandstone, in which sheets or dykes of basalt or some material which was once in a molten condition are occasionally found. The blue ground fills a sort of shaft of colossal size in these other rocks, and is itself cut up by similar dikes. The opinion of geologists differs as to whether the gems were produced where they now lie or have been formed of some older rock, which has been shattered by volcanic explosions. It is thought that the mystery has been at last cleared up. About two years ago the manager of a diamond mine near Kimberly picked up a specimen in which smaller diamonds were apparently embedded in a garnet. This led to an investigation of various boulders, one of which was broken open and was found to contain diamonds. The rock is of the description known to mineralogists as "eclogite." It is apparently composed almost exclusively of red garnet rock and a rather peculiar light green augite. The rock is coarsely crystalline, and in all probability was once like garnet in a molten condition, the diamond being one of its original constituents. Experts now tend to the belief that the "blue ground" in which diamonds were found is not their true birthplace. The boulders are often water-marked, and may have rested for ages in an ancient gravel at the very bottom of sedimentary rocks of the district. In course of time volcanic explosions shattered the rocky floor in which the diamonds were embedded, of which the boulders were only samples, and dispersed it, together with the overlying materials. It is believed that this is the true explanation of the formation of the diamond-bearing "blue ground."

There can be nothing better for backache, nervousness, sleeplessness and all ailments arising from kidney disorders than Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids. It is impossible to manufacture a better remedy. KID-NE-OIDS contain the very best ingredients that are good for ailments arising from the kidneys. The vast number of people in this city who have testified to the merits of KID-NE-OIDS is sufficient proof that none of our claims are false.

Mrs. T. S. Johnson, 331 Harrison street, Beloit, Wis., says: "I have been afflicted with kidney backache, and other symptoms of disordered kidneys for some time past. During the continuance of my troubles I have experimented with kidney pills and other kidney remedies but did not get any relief until I used Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids. In a very short time I was greatly relieved. I continued to take Kid-Ne-Oids and I am being relieved of all my former troubles very rapidly. I think Kid-Ne-Oids a splendid remedy for kidney troubles."

Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids are not pills but yellow tablets, and sell at fifty cents a box by all druggists and by The People's Drug Co.

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.
Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pain and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. I have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

MILITARISM. CAESARISM BRYANISM.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: General Charles F. Manderson has set out to demolish the Democratic bugaboo of militarism and it looks as if he were succeeding.

Mr. Bryan and his colleagues on the stump have gone back a generation to revive the old alarmist arguments against an adequate army. The copperheads of the '60's raised the cry that, with an army of a million, and with scores of ambitious Generals the country was tempting Caesarism, militarism and destruction. They were confuted totally when this army was disbanded and its generals retired quietly to private life. However, Mr. Bryan and his colleagues do not object to a confuted argument as long as it sounds well and this one has been such a melodious echo of the copperhead fathers that it has been trumpeted abroad with unusual industry. Hence it is timely that General Manderson should set forth the facts.

The United States army of 65,000 today is proportionately smaller than an army of 20,000 was in 1849 or 25,000 in 1870. On the basis of 82,000,000 inhabitants on American soil, one soldier to every 1,000 would give us a regular army of 82,000. Yet France, with a population of 35,500,000, has an army of 560,000 on a peace footing, or fourteen soldiers to the thousand; Germany has eleven soldiers to 1,000 inhabitants; Austria-Hungary, seven; Russia, six; Great Britain, five and six-tenths.

France has a soldier to every thirty-seven-hundredths of a square mile; Great Britain, one to every fifty-eight-hundredths; the United States, one to every fifty-five square miles.

The expense of maintaining the regular army in France is $2.21 per capita; Germany, $2.70; Great Britain, $3.21; the United States, 72 cents. We have now in the field 65,000 regulars and 35,000 volunteers. In the Mexican war we had 27,500 regulars and 73,782 volunteers. Our population now is four times as large as it was in 1848, or at the time of the Mexican war, and we are in control of a territory 1,346,344 square miles greater in extent.

Our regular army was 56,000 in 1867, when we had a population of not more than 32,000,000. It is only 9,000 larger now, with an estimated population of 76,000,000, not including the recently annexed territories.

Among the multitudinous other things that Mr. Bryan and his colleagues forget is the fact, so apparent in some of the above figures, that, despite the efforts of the democratic party, this country makes progress and insures new duties and necessities from generation to generation.

AS A REVENUE PRODUCER

It cannot escape the attention of observant citizens that the tariff, which formed an important issue several years ago, and which overshadowed nearly all other questions in two congresses, has ceased to be an insistent problem. As with respect to the currency, few persons now permit themselves to be troubled by the rates of duty levied upon imports, and the attempt to make the tariff a factor in the ensuing campaign is received with indifference.

This is due to the circumstance that, while the Wilson tariff failed to realize the expectations of its framers, the Dingley tariff is actually exceeding the estimates. The ordinary receipts for the last fiscal year almost equaled the expenditures. Large disbursements for the army and navy and the cost of the war caused a big deficit, of course; but under normal conditions, with the returns from the war taxes and the extra payments deducted, income and outgo almost balanced.

The current year may be expected to show a surplus. On Thursday of last week the deficiency had been reduced to $262,752. This was wiped out by the excess on Friday, and the receipts of the next three days brought the balance up to $3,000,000. The imports this year will be much larger than in 1893-99, insuring an increase in the customs collections, while the revenues from internal taxes are also far greater.

It is thought that no additional legislation will be required to keep the finances of the nation, so far as the state of the treasury is concerned, in good condition.—Baltimore "Herald."

MILWAUKEE MAY GET THE CONVENTION

CHANCES SEEM TO BE IN FAVOR OF THE CREAM CITY.

Great 1900 Democratic Presidential Pow-wow Likely to Be Held in the Badger Metropolis—Chicago Out of the Race—State News.

Milwaukee, Oct. 30.—Mayor Rose and his friends, who are working to secure the location of the democratic national convention in this city next year, say they have $50,000 of the $100,000 necessary for the purpose, so far as finances are concerned. The railroads have responded handsomely, the mayor says, as they consider Chicago out of the race. There is no longer any use of any one denying that Milwaukee is in the lead for the convention. Everything indicates that the leading democrats throughout the country are nearly a unit in favor of coming here, although they will not say so for publication, except in a few cases.

An extension of the Milwaukee & Superior railroad from North Lake, to Beaver Dam is being considered by officers of the road in response to requests from residents of Hustisford, Juneau and Beaver Dam, who offer to secure the necessary right-of-way.

On Nov. 20, 21, 22 and 23 there will be held at the Masonic building on Jefferson street the thirty-sixth semi-annual re-union of the Wisconsin Lodge of Perfection, Wisconsin council, Princes of Jerusalem, Wisconsin Chapter of Rose Croix and Wisconsin Consistory of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite Masons of the so-called valley of Milwaukee.

Lake Geneva will be the scene of the next regatta held under the auspices of the Inland Lake Yachting association, the members of the foremost aquatic organization in the West deciding at Saturday's meeting which was held at Hotel Pfister, to follow out the policy outlined last year of accepting the invitation of the Lake Geneva Yacht club for 1900. The races will be held during the third week in August and an effort will be made to bring together a large number of yachts and sailors.

Logging Season Has Opened. Marshfield, Wis., Oct. 30.—The logging season in this locality has opened with a vigor seldom witnessed and a larger number of camps are being put up by the lumber concerns of Marshfield than ever before. The estimated log crop by local lumbermen will not fall short of 100,000,000 feet. A majority of the camps have been put in and others will be started as rapidly as men can be procured.

Wants State Poultry Show. La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 30.—The poultrymen of this city will make an effort to secure the Wisconsin state poultry show for this city in 1900. A meeting will be held Wednesday evening to take steps to this end. The show this year will be held at Waupaca, December 26 to 31. There are four cities in the field for next year's convention—Milwaukee, Oshkosh, Stevens Point and La Crosse.

Corner Stone Laid at Kenosha. Kenosha, Wis., Oct. 30.—The corner stone of the monument to be erected by Z. G. Simmons in memory of the old soldiers and sailors of Kenosha county, was laid yesterday afternoon in the presence of 3,000 persons. A simple program was carried out, the more elaborate ceremonies being reserved for the dedication of the monument on its completion.

To Open Long Distance Lines. West Superior, Wis., Oct. 30.—The American Telephone & Telegraph company is holding its formal opening of long distance lines in this city today. The program includes music over the wires from Milwaukee. Business men were given several hours in which they could call up their distant friends free of charge.

English Lady M. D's. The spread of medical women in conservative Great Britain is astonishing. In London alone there are now eighty-five registered and qualified medical women, almost all of whom are in practice. Some of these hold posts in dispensaries, hospitals, children's hospitals, infirmaries, posts as ophthalmic surgeons, assistant anaesthetists, medical examiners, inspectors and lecturers. Not only has almost every large English town a lady medic, but even remote Orkney islands have qualified women as medical officers.

Poisons Used as Antidotes. Pure venom of the rattlesnake is being used by eminent practitioners in severe case of scarlet fever. Dried bullock's blood mixed with glycerin and brandy or simply powdered is one of the latest additions to the physician's armament. One of the most effective of tonics and vastly used is strychnia. Strophanthus, introduced from central Africa some few years ago and now recognized as a potent heart sedative, is the deadly arrow poison of the African cannibals.

Mouse Preventive. One of the best mouse preventives is the foliage of the walnut tree. Even after the foliage has been dried it is said to be effectual in scaring away mice.

AN AUTOMOBILE CLUB.

First Organization of Its Kind in America and Its President.

General Avery D. Andrews has the distinction of being the president of the first automobile club in this country. The club was recently organized in New York with 33 charter members. It is to be known as the Automobile Club of America. There is a similar organization in London with about 500 members, and the Paris Automobile club, which has been in existence for nearly two years, is a most flourishing affair.

It costs $100 to become an active member of the Automobile Club of America. The membership is to be limited to 400, just the number of those whom Ward McAllister included in New York's exclusive society. Honorary and associate members may be elected without limit.

A clubhouse is to be built and a storage house for vehicles will be secured. Club runs will be held and repair stations will be established. The club contemplates the holding of an automobile exhibition some time during the coming winter. It is expected that this function will rival the New York horse show, as it is intended to make it a society affair. When the club is in good working order, it will try to influence legislation in favor of automobilists and will demand from park boards privileges equal to those extended to other pleasure vehicles. The club will also superintend the exhibit of American automobiles at the Paris exposition.

Among the charter members of the club are several rich New York merchants, two or three noted physicians, a wealthy brewer, a famous magazine editor, an army officer and numerous prominent society men. It goes without saying that all the members are rich men, for automobilism is essentially the sport of the rich.

To Make the Men Propose.

At a meeting of the middle-class ladies of Athens, held recently, it was decided to ask parliament to impose a heavy tax on all bachelors over 40 years of age. The newspapers, in commenting on the announcement, remark that the passage of any such measure is most unlikely, for the chamber has become the chief resort of well-to-do bachelors, and consequently the tax would hit them heavily.

Citizens.

South African Times: The various ideas of the number of aliens in the South African Republic are amusing. Mr. Chamberlain thinks there are 200,000, of whom 150,000 are British. The Times recently went to the trouble of ascertaining how many persons are registered on the books of the Johannesburg Field-Corner. There were 89,727, of whom a number were burghers.

GIDEONS AMONG TRAVELING MEN

Commercial Drummers of the U. S. Organize a Grand Movement.

FIRST STEPS TAKEN AT A MEETING IN JANESVILLE.

New Society Will Be Known As the

Gideon-Beloit and Janesville Men the First Officers Elected—The Charter Members—Origin of the Organization—Several Meetings Held in This City to Perfect Details—

Next Meeting at Waukegan, Ill.,

July 1, 1900.

Commercial traveling men throughout the United States are now joining hands in one grand Christian movement.

The idea of organizing a Christian Traveling Men's Association was first advanced by Janesville knights of this grip.

This new organization is to be known as The Gideons. Following are the officers elected:

S. E. Hill, Beloit, Wis., President.

W. J. Knights, Janesville, Wis., Vice President.

John H. Nicholson, Janesville, Secretary.

Following is the executive committee:

L. C. Smith, chairman, Oshkosh, Wis.;

Chas. B. Kettredge, Waukegan, Ill.; J. F. Grunkau, Milwaukee, Wis.

Following are the charter members:

S. E. Hill, Beloit; W. J. Knights, Janesville;

A. Crawford, Janesville; L. C. Smith, Oshkosh;

Hugh Pound, Madison; L. C. Crissey, Janesville;

J. W. Roraback, Milwaukee; G. A. Metcalf, Janesville;

J. H. Nicholson, Janesville; C. K. Kittredge, Waukegan, Ill.;

J. F. Grunkau and John J. Williams, Milwaukee.

On Wednesday, May 31, 1899, two commercial travelers met in the business thoroughfares of Beaver Dam, Wisconsin.

After the usual greeting a social conversation sprang up between them, in which the idea of organizing a Christian Traveling Men's association was advanced, and at once OK'd by both as an excellent thing to do. The time and place was immediately agreed upon for the first meeting, being Janesville, Wis.,

Saturday, July 1, at 2 p. m., in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. building. Letters were written to several travelers, and replies were immediately returned heartily endorsing the movement, also by those who were seen personally.

At a secret meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. building in this city on July 1, 1899, S. E. Hill, Beloit, Wis., was elected president; W. J. Knights, vice president;

John H. Nicholson, Janesville, Wis., secretary. The meeting was then called to order by the president and opened by prayer by W. J. Knights. Letters were read by the secretary from commercial travelers who heartily endorsed the movement and expressed a desire to become members of such an organization.

It was then discussed who could become members of the "Gideons," and it was finally decided that any traveling man who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, and serving Him, no matter what denomination he may be connected with,

would be eligible to membership in the "Gideons."

The object of the "Gideons" will be to recognize Christian traveling men with cordial fellowship, and encourage one another in the Master's work—to improve every opportunity they may have for the betterment of the lives of the Commercial Travelers, business men and others with whom they may come in contact daily; scattering seeds all along the pathway of life for Christ.

It was decided to hold the annual meeting the first day of July each year, at a place to be decided upon at each annual meeting for the next. President,

S. E. Hill, suggested that each of the members work to secure between now and July 1, 1900, in all, 300 members.

The cost of membership in the Gideons is only "Service" for Christ.

The only expense will be the Secretary's supplies, and they will be paid for by a

"free will" offering at the annual conventions.

The question came up regarding the wearing of a button so that one Gideon could at once recognize another, and it was decided by a unanimous vote that the following described button be purchased by the secretary and each member be furnished with the same to wear in the lapel of his coat, viz: Blue background, white pitcher, with the red flame of a torch protruding from the pitcher—red, white and blue.

All committees appointed at the last meeting, officers elected and the general transaction of all business, held at Janesville, Wis., July 1, 1899, stood approved by a unanimous vote.

J. S. Taylor of Janesville, was appointed by the president as musical director of the Gideons for the ensuing year.

On July 1, 1900, the national convention will be held at Waukegan, Ill., and officers elected and general business transacted for the ensuing year.

FURNITURE PRICES ARE STILL GOING UP

RAW MATERIAL ADVANCING IN EVERY DIRECTION.

Trade Circulars Being Constantly Received and Sent Notifying Retailers of Further Advances—Notable Rise in Mattresses, Chairs, Tables, Bedroom Sets and Other Articles.

The furniture dealers who failed to put in a large supply of goods during the summer months, and many did, owing to the failure of the manufacturers to fill orders sent them, will have to pay increased prices for the various articles this month, and the price lists which have just been quoted them are subject to change any day.

During June the first rise in prices occurred, and at that time the quotations on nearly all articles of furniture advanced. Shortly after this a meeting of furniture dealers was held, and it was decided, owing to the increased cost of raw material, to make another jump, and this was done. All this time the raw material was advancing in price, and during September a meeting of furniture men was held in Chicago, at which nearly all the large concerns of the country were represented.

The chair, table and mattress manufacturers also met and a uniform scale of prices was the result. The same reasons were attributed for advancing the price of mattresses, the raw material having advanced according to the statements of the manufacturers. Following close after these meetings revised price lists were sent out. All bed room suits, whether manufactured here, in New York or Chicago went up $1. This advance was made immediately following the meeting in Oshkosh.

The several table manufacturers advanced their best grade of goods 50 cents, the next 25 cents and the cheaper articles 10 cents. In the past, 10 cent discount was given on all thirty days sales but this discount has been abolished and now only 2 per cent. is allowed on ten days sales. There is good reason to believe that a further advance will take place November 1, as information to that effect has been given out by traveling salesmen.

The same can be said of chairs, the advance being fully equal to that by the table manufacturers, and the former discount of ten per cent for cash sales is made uniform with that of the table manufacturer. The following is a circular sent out by a chair manufacturing concern attached to its revised price list, which is similar to those sent out by all manufacturers of furniture:

"To the trade: Owing to the continued advance in cost of material used in the construction of our chairs, we are again obliged to advance our prices. Herewith we send you our price list of Oct. 1, 1899. Please destroy price list of August, 1899, and place this one in catalogue recently sent you."

On mattresses the advance is even more noticeable than on some of the other goods carried by furniture dealers. The circular issued Oct. 1 and which went into effect Oct. 15 quoted the following advances: "On plain excelsior mattresses, ten per cent. Wool or cotton reversible mattresses fifteen per cent. This great advance in raw material is responsible for this amount."

Local furniture dealers state that a further advance may be looked for in the near future.

Washing Bank Bills.

"It is not generally known," said a local bank teller, "but bills can be washed and ironed as easily as a pocket handkerchief. A wealthy woman of my acquaintance has all her money laundered before she uses it. She turns the notes over to her maid, who washes them thoroughly in hot water with ordinary soapuds and spreads them out on a table to dry. Then she dampens them slightly and presses them with a medium hot smoothing iron. If the bill is not frayed, this process will make it as bright and crisp as when it first left the treasury. It is astonishing how dirty money gets. If one could see the water in which a dozen commonly circulated bills were washed, it would give him a permanent aversion to the trade of teller."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

KANSANS START FOR HOME.

Famous Twentieth Regiment Has Left San Francisco.

WARM WELCOME PROMISED.

Elaborate Preparations Made by the People of the Sunflower State to Greet
Their Heroes—Organization Sadly
Thinned by Battle and Disease.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 30.—The famous fighting Kansans have gone away. They departed Sunday in three sections of the special train furnished by the proud and grateful people of the Sunflower state, which is waiting to receive them. With a parting cheer as they were gathered on the Oakland mole preparing to board the cars the men that Funston led in so many victorious engagements turned their backs on the golden gate to begin the long overland journey by the Santa Fe route.

It will not be as big a regiment as that which started from Kansas a year and a half ago. One hundred and fourteen re-enlisted and stayed in the Philippines to fight in some of the new volunteer regiments, and 188 had been discharged for disability previous to departure. Deducting also the men who were killed in action and those who died from disease, it will be seen that the Twentieth is little more than half as large as it was when Kansas last saw it. But Gen. Funston and Col. Metcalf, the last man mustered out, and other heroes of national fame, will be with the returning volunteers, and mere numbers will not count.

Only the Tennessee volunteers remain to be received here and welcomed back to the reservation. Before they arrive it is possible that the Washington and Iowa regiments will be mustered out and started for home.

Kansas to Greet the Troops.

Topeka, Kas., Oct. 30.—Elaborate preparations are making for the reception to be accorded the Twentieth Kansas regiment, which is due to arrive here next Thursday from San Francisco. Excursion trains are to be run into Topeka from all points, and over 40,000 visitors are expected in the city. President McKinley and Secretary of War Root, who had been invited to attend the ceremonies, have sent tributes to the regiment.

Mason Holds to His Threat.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Senator Mason has again given expression to his anti-imperialistic sentiments. In a signed statement in a New York newspaper he reiterates his determination to resign his seat in the senate if the republican party "is in favor of criminal aggression, imperialism, militarism, high taxes, loss of American lives and eventual death to the republican party." Continuing he says: "So far as my seat in the senate is concerned, I did not receive it from a boss, I hold my commission from the people and particularly from the rank and file of the republican party, and I shall wait until they speak and not listen to any self-appointed syndicate or boss."

Castro Must Fight Rebels.

Caracas, Oct. 30.—The New York Tribune correspondent cables: "Gen. Cipriano Castro, who has just succeeded in driving President Andrade from the country, already has a revolution on his hands. Followers of Gen. Hernandez, the new minister of commerce, have organized a revolution, and, owing to the strength of their leader, threaten seriously to disturb the plans for peace. Efforts are being made to arrange a settlement."

McCoy Wants to Meet the Kicker.

New York, Oct. 31.—"Kid" McCoy is desirous of meeting Charlemont, the French fighter, whose victory over Driscoll, an Englishman, was recently reported. Under French rules, fighters are privileged to use both their feet and hands in the ring. McCoy concedes Charlemont the right to use his feet, but for himself agrees to battle only with his hands. As evidence of his sincerity McCoy has posted a forfeit.

Soldier Dies as Burglar.

Lincoln, Ill., Oct. 30.—John Peter, a recently discharged private of company D, Thirty-ninth United States volunteer infantry, and native of Oakland, Cal., was shot and instantly killed by W. C. Mowry at 2 o'clock Sunday morning while, with a gang of burglars, he was attempting to enter a general store at Beason. The coroner's jury exonerated Mowry.

Business Houses All Burned.

Goshen, Ind., Oct. 30.—The business portion of Wakarusa, a thriving town nine miles west of Goshen, on the Wabash railroad, was burned Sunday morning, nineteen business houses being destroyed. The loss is estimated at $60,000. The fire started in Krizely & Burner's hardware store.

Greater Navy Is Demanded.

Berlin, Oct. 30.—The Berlin press is filled with comment on the proposed increase in the German navy. The majority of the papers are warmly in favor of the idea.

Ottmar Mergenthaler Dead.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 30.—Ottmar Mergenthaler, the inventor of the Linotype typesetting machine, died Saturday of consumption. He was born in Germany on May 10, 1854.

Some Flower Fancies.

The Japanese have a custom of celebrating the blossoming of the trees by a general holiday. This aesthetic people also regard the grouping of flowers as such a fine art that they frequently require their young women to take a two-year course simply in the arrangement of flowers. Both the Chinese and the Japanese have a true idea of the value of each blossom, leaf and stem in the final effect. Each twig, each branch, is given its place in the study; no blossom or leaf must be crowded; each instead must stand forth in its own beauty of form and color. Stiffness, close masses and all geometric designs are avoided as expressing everything that is inartistic. Each variety of flower also requires a different style and size of vase, as well as an entirely different treatment in the arrangement.—Baltimore Herald.

A Plant Detested by Animals.

The castor oil plant is so universally detested by the whole of the animal world that no bird, beast nor creeping thing will touch one. It seems to be a rank poison to all kinds of animals; even a goat will starve before biting at a leaf, and a horse will snuff at it and turn up his upper lip as if it had the most detestable odor on the face of the earth. Army worms and the like will not pass it by, though they will eat every other green thing in sight, and there is no surer way to drive mice from a lawn than to plant a few castor beans here and there. Even the tobacco worm will refuse to be fed on it.

Firemen Buried in the Debris.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 30.—The sheep pens at the stockyards, covering an entire block, were destroyed by fire late Saturday night, 600 sheep being cremated. Four firemen were seriously injured by falling walls, and one of them, Charles Peterson, driver of a hook and ladder truck, may die. The loss is estimated at $30,000.

New Spanish Treaty Planned.

Washington, Oct. 30.—An understanding has been reached by which it is expected that negotiations will be opened soon at Madrid for a new treaty between the United States and Spain. This will be the last step toward completely restoring the friendly relations between the two countries.

Alleges Fraud in New York.

New York, Oct. 30.—State Superintendent of Elections John McCullagh will present to the United States district attorneys of the southern and eastern districts of New York evidence which he says proves extensive and deliberately fraudulent naturalization of foreigners.

Bremen, Oct. 30.—The exodus of Saxon spinners to the United States continues, two officers of the Weisses-Bog company of Gera being on their way to New York. They will undertake the erection of large mills at Passaic, N. J.

Warmly Greeted in Boston.

Boston, Oct. 30.—A great meeting in the Boston theater Sunday night welcomed Daniel Tallon, lord mayor of Dublin, and John E. Redmond, M. P., who are raising funds for the Parnell monument.

WHEN THE BIVOUAC FIRES are lighting and the tents are being pitched; when a hard day's march is over, and the sun is sinking low; when the wearied soldier hungers and thinks of "Home, Sweet Home," then

OLD UNDEROOF RYE is voted "just the proper thing." It is the poetry of whiskies. It represents 30 years of specialized experience in the art of blending. It is a combination of selected whiskies, which cannot possibly be successfully imitated. This is the secret of its immense popularity. Ripened and matured by storage for many years in charred oak barrels.

MAY COMMISSION FLEETS.

Rumored Important Action of British Admiralty.

CONFERENCE AT PORTSMOUTH

Naval Officers Summoned to Discuss the Situation—British and Boer Forces at Ladysmith Face Each Other for a Decisive Battle.

London, Oct. 30.—A conference of naval officers and dockyard officials was hastily summoned this morning at Portsmouth. It is reported the admiralty intends to commission nearly the whole fleet in reserve at the home dockyards and probably twenty or thirty cruisers.

London, Oct. 30.—Every indication points to a big battle in the vicinity of Ladysmith today. Gen. Joubert finally has succeeded in joining the Boer and Free State armies, and now has a force conservatively estimated at 17,000 men. To combat this army Gens. White, Yule and Hunter's combined forces number at the outside only 12,000.

The British claim to have nearly fifty guns, all of better quality than those of the Boers, but of shorter range. The Boers are credited with forty guns, but the chances are they have more.

Almost every approach to Ladysmith is invested, and the last balloon party discovered the Boers busily engaged in fortifying their positions in a manner almost as perfect as could be designed by a West Point or Sandhurst graduate of long experience.

Gen. Joubert's plans undoubtedly have been laid with the greatest care. Not only has he combined the two armies and formed the troops in battle line behind the fortifications, but has arranged his batteries in good positions to shell the British camp from several different directions.

Notwithstanding this, the British are confident that they can withstand any attack. Gen. White will take the defensive. He has laid all his plans to that end and his guns point in every direction occupied by the Boer camps. Batteries and earthworks have been thrown up and every man is standing with his gun ready for service. All non-residents and women and children were ordered out of town, so that everything is in readiness for the opening of the hostilities which may decide the whole Transvaal trouble at daybreak.

The fate of the British all rests on the military judgment of Gen. White, who, like Gen. Joubert, on the Boer side, has supreme command. His hands are perfectly free. None of the authorities here has attempted to interfere in the slightest degree, and if he is victorious all the glory will be his, and if defeated all the blame will rest on his shoulders.

It is known here, however, that he will act on the defensive except on the hypothesis that the enemy has divided. Should he find that one force is holding him in constant menace of a serious attack while the other makes a wide, sweeping movement to the eastward, striking at the lower Tugela and the roads leading to Greytown, he will then force an engagement with the enemy immediately in his front. Otherwise he will rest on his oars until the Boers begin working their big guns.

Gen. White's forces are divided into ten battalions of infantry, eight batteries of artillery, three regiments of cavalry and a number of volunteers. One hundred and forty of the Scotch volunteer mounted corps left Durban to join Gen. White's infantry corps, and 1,000 are forming for the same purpose.

Advices from Bulawayo stated that Lieut. Llewellyn, with a force of police and railway men, are holding the Boers in check at Ootsi, near Lobatshi, fifty miles north of Mafeking. There has been no serious fighting as yet. Baden-Powell is confident he can withstand the Boer attack.

The situation at Kimberly is apparently unchanged. The estimate of the Boer force in the vicinity of the town places the number at from 7,000 to 8,000, four times the strength of the garrison.

The latest British estimate of the Boer loss at Glencoe is 500 killed and injured, and three guns disabled.

Dispatches from Australia describe the remarkable enthusiasm over the departure of the troops on Saturday. The entire population of Melbourne and Sydney were out. Victoria is sending 250, Tasmania 80, Adelaide 125, Albany 125, and South Wales 37.

The total British losses to date are 119 killed, 532 wounded, two missing, and 250 captured.

The Telegraph's correspondent at Pietermaritzburg, telegraphing Saturday, says: After fourteen days since the invasion of Natal the Boers occupy virtually one-fourth of the colony, including two important towns and 100 miles of railway. They have suffered three reverses and lost 2,000 in killed and wounded. They can do nothing except in the hills, and not much there. They are beginning to feel that on a level country like the Free State their only alternative is retreat, surrender or annihilation. In case the Free State force was threatened from the south or west the Boers in Natal would require a week to reach Bloemfontein.

FEAR AN ANGLO-SAXON COALITION

Europeans Disturbed by Thoughts of International Complications.

Antwerp, Oct. 30.—Much alarm is expressed on the Rotterdam, Amsterdam and Antwerp exchanges owing to the high war risk demanded by the Lloyds on shipping between Great Britain and Russia. Many pessimists believe that this points to the probability of an Anglo-Russian difficulty.

President McKinley's attitude, regarded here as throwing the moral support of the United States on the side of Great Britain in the Transvaal war, alarms the Belgian press, since the bugbear of Europe is the fear of an Anglo-Saxon coalition.

SHUTS DOWN ON NAVAL NEWS.

London, Oct. 30.—Little now appears in print about the naval preparations. This is because the government has learned from the comments of the continental press that by our signs of unwonted activity we are exciting suspicion, and the admiralty at once has taken effective measures for preventing the leakage of naval news. While there are no fresh rumors of Russian or French intrigue, and there is no probability that any coalition will be formed against Great Britain, or that any organized attempt will be made to bring into operation the arbitration machinery improvised by the peace commission at The Hague, the American peace commissioners at Paris established the principle once for all that arbitration must precede, not follow, the outbreak of hostilities.

WHITE'S FORCE STRENGTHENED.

London, Oct. 30.—Gen. White's force is now known to have been strengthened by regulars and local levies from Pietermaritzburg until it includes fully 15,000 men, with additional battalions moving up from the coast.

The Standard voices the general anxiety regarding Sir George White's position by remarking the adaptability and able strategy of the Boers, for which they had hitherto not been given credit. It goes on to say: "Their strategy is so well planned that it is impossible to doubt that it is the product of some officer trained in the best European school of war."

Again it is reported that President Kruger accompanied Gen. Joubert to the front in a splendidly-fitted traveling wagon.

SCHLEY GOING TO SOUTH AFRICA.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The south Atlantic squadron, under Rear-Admiral Schley, has been ordered, or soon will be ordered, to the scene of the South African hostilities. This is the second great development from this country's standpoint in the European crisis, and strangely enough follows the notification by Great Britain of Germany's proposition for the partition of the Samoan group. The European concert, evidently desirous of getting a practical illustration of this country's attitude, is credited with having impelled Germany to make the first test. The result is that the United States has demonstrated her friendliness to Great Britain.

BRITISH ARMY IS CRITICISED.

Paris, Oct. 30.—French opinion is to the effect that Great Britain is showing weakness in the mobilization of her army. While praising the officers, who have shown great bravery, from the French standpoint the British fighting has been inferior and its tactics poor. The Boer troops are considered superior, save in numbers, for the work of carrying on the kind of warfare which is now being waged in the Transvaal.

RED CROSS RECOGNIZED.

Pretoria, Oct. 27 (delayed in transmission).—The German corps, which suffered severely in the fighting at Elandsbaagte, is being reorganized and filled up to its original strength of 600. Capt. Van Aldebyll, commanding.

The German consul has notified the Transvaal government that the German Red Cross society has offered the Transvaal a full detachment. The government will accept the offer.

KINDNESS SHOWN BY THE BOERS.

Durban, Oct. 27 (delayed in transmission).—Major Donegan, chief medical officer at Glencoe, has wired to the Transvaal state secretary, F. W. Reitz, at Pretoria, an expression of thanks on behalf of all the British officers and men in the hospital at Glencoe for the extreme kindness shown them by the Boer officers and men. The announcement adds that the wounded are doing well and that none of the officers is likely to die.

WILL GUARD THE PERSIAN GULF.

Cork, Oct. 30.—One hundred and fifty Irishkilling dragoons, with their horses, have left Queenstown for the Persian gulf. In view of the rumors current as to the possibility of Russian aggression in Persia while Great Britain has its hands full in the Transvaal, this strengthening of the British police on the Persian gulf is considered significant.

BRITISH CRUISERS ARE IN TRIM.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—The coaling and provisioning of the British cruisers Crescent and Tribune was completed Saturday and they are now ready to put to sea at a moment's notice. It is hardly expected, however, that they will be ordered away before Nov. 7, when they are to sail for the West Indies.

TELLS OF CUBAN PROGRESS.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee Talks in an Optimistic Manner.

PROSPERITY IS RESTORED.

People Are Improving Under the Protectorate of the United States, but Are Not Yet Ready for Self-Government—He Favors Independence.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, who arrived in Washington Saturday night from New York, in an interview, said that the people of Cuba are steadily improving under the existing protectorate of the United States and are slowly but surely rebuilding their war-wasted homes and repairing their crippled fortunes.

Life and property are secure in Cuba, owing largely, he said, to the salutary restraint exercised by American military authority. He thinks the time not ripe yet, however, for a purely Cuban government.

"Cuba," said Gen. Lee, "is improving. The Cubans are tractable and quiet and the revolution has given them self-respect and self-reliance. Their impulses are generally in the right direction, but of course both in the theory and practice of self-government they are wholly without experience."

"There is among certain Cubans a deep-seated prejudice against some men, who, the Cubans think, oppressed Cubans under Spanish rule, and if given a free rein the Cubans would make short work of them. The United States government is pledged to grant independence to Cuba after the island has been pacified, and I believe that promise should be fulfilled just as swiftly as we can in reason and justice."

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE ENDS.

Centraalia, Ill., Oct. 30.—The biennial conference of the Y. M. C. A. closed here Sunday evening after three days of successful work. The visitors occupied the pulpits at the various churches during the day and a special service for men only was held in the afternoon, conducted by F. B. Smith of New York. The farewell service was held in the evening, after which the conference adjourned.

LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 29,682.

"Two years ago I was a great sufferer from womb trouble and profuse flowing each month, and tumors would form in the womb. I had four tumors in two years. I went through treatment with doctors, but they did me no good, and I thought I would have to resort to morphine."

"The doctor said that all that could help me was to have an operation and have the womb removed, but I had heard of Mrs. Pinkham's medicine and decided to try it, and wrote for her advice, and after taking her Vegetable Compound the tumors were expelled and I began to get stronger right along, and am as well as ever before. Can truly say that I would never had gotten well had it not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound."—MARY A. STAHL, WATSONTOWN, PA.

What Mrs. Pinkham's Letter Did.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—After following the directions given in your kind letter for the treatment of leucorrhoea, I can say that I have been entirely cured by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies, and will gladly recommend them to my friends."

"Thanking you for your kindness, I am gratefully yours, A. B. DAVIDS, BINGHAMPTON, N. Y."

Entire Town Swept by Fire.
Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 30.—Bloomdale, a village on the Baltimore & Ohio railway, is the scene of a destructive fire. All of the village east of Main street is ablaze and help is coming from Fostoria. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin and started in H. M. Hosler's barn at 9 o'clock last night. Water is scarce and the fire was still raging at midnight. The loss will be many thousands of dollars.

Gen. Henry's Remains Removed.
New York, Oct. 30.—The largest and most impressive military funeral procession since the death of Gen. William T. Sherman took place Sunday morning when the body of Gen. Guy V. Henry was removed from his residence to the Pennsylvania train that conveyed it to Washington, where interment will be made in Arlington cemetery.

Would Buy Off Aguinaldo.
New York, Oct. 30.—Li Hung Chang, the Chinese premier, suggests the sale of the Philippines to Japan as one solution of this country's war problem. He declares that the expansion policy is anti-American, but if the United States is determined to hold the Philippines he suggests that it is much cheaper to buy off Aguinaldo than to continue the war.

Ridicule Filipino Overtures.
Hongkong, Oct. 30.—The people of Hongkong ridicule Aguinaldo's peace overtures. The same trick was tried last year, the object then, as probably now, being to waste time during the dry season. It is generally hoped here that Gen. Otis has learned from experience to accept nothing short of complete surrender.

Big Fire in Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 30.—The triangular block bounded by Canal and Second streets and Germantown avenue was almost entirely destroyed by fire Sunday, entailing a loss of more than $150,000, on which there is a partial insurance.

Age of Whales.
